Garcia – Pandemic Law Change Exercise (Self-Employment)

Interview Notes

Jose is an Electrical Contractor. He worked at a large condominium complex being constructed by Davidson Design and Build LLC until April when the project was temporarily halted due to the coronavirus pandemic. Construction was able to resume in June. He also did electrical work for small businesses and private homeowners. His business name is Garcia Electric and he uses his home address.

His daughter is a Second Class Petty Officer in the Navy and was assigned to a two year tour overseas at the beginning of the year. Jose's grandson, Ronald, is living with him while his mother is deployed. He provides all of Ronald's support so that his daughter can save some money while overseas. Her pay and allowances are about $30,000. His daughter will not claim Ronald.

In July, Jose was in close contact with two other contractors who tested positive for COVID-19 and he was required to self-quarantine for 14 days and test negative before returning to the construction site resulting in 12 lost work days.

Jose's sister provides day care for Ronald during the week while he attends school virtually and on Saturdays when Jose is working. However in September, she tested positive for COVID-19 and was unavailable for 28 days until she recovered. Jose was unable to find another provider and was unable to work while taking care of Ronald (21 lost work days).

He received a PPP Loan of $14,482 that was forgiven. His 2019 profit was $69,513

Jose received an Economic Impact Payment of $1,200.

Interview Notes

Latisha was the manager of Orsay, an upscale restaurant. Her husband, William was injured a few years ago in an accident and is unable to work. He receives Social Security disability benefits.

The restaurant was forced to close at the end of March due to the coronavirus pandemic. They struggled to operate providing carryout service through May but then the owners were forced to close for good. Latisha continued as manager on reduced salary in April and May.

Latisha started receiving unemployment benefits in June, but the income was not enough to replace her lost salary. She was able to begin working as manager of another fine dining restaurant in January 2021.

Latisha took an early withdrawal from her 401(k) that they will report on their 2020 tax return and was able to repay $7,000 after she began working again. She may repay more next year. William took an early withdrawal from his IRA and would like to spread the income over the three-year period allowed under the CARES Act.

They did receive an Economic Impact Payment of $2,400.
